GEORGIA TRAINERS ROUNDTABLE FALL CONFERENCE – NOVEMBER 13-14, 2008

Agenda

Nov. 13th: 9:00 am- 5:00 pm

Peanut Butter: Training Tips That Stick

presented by Michele Matt, CSP

Nov. 14th: 9:00 am -2:00 pm

2009 GTR Planning Session for Members*

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

This workshop provides practical tools and techniques for “trainers” to use before, during, and after a learning experience.

Michele uses experiential learning techniques such as demonstrations, large and small group discussions, self-assessments, video tape critiques, and post-workshop application.

After participating in this workshop, you will be able to:

- ★ Promote the benefits of training
- ★ Identify the learners’ developmental needs and learning style
- ★ Recognize the alternatives to classroom training
- ★ Use a 10-step process for developing a “learner-centered” workshop
- ★ Incorporate accelerated learning techniques to add variety and enhance retention of ideas
- ★ Design and conduct a workshop that will improve performance

Have fun sharing ideas for future training topics, speakers, and sharing best practices!

Members enjoy exclusive benefits from the Georgia Trainers Roundtable, such as:

Share Best Practices

- ★ Heighten creativity and enthusiasm for training by sharing best practices, book reviews, ideas for new training classes, and success stories.
- ★ Gain insight and ideas from leaders in the training profession.

Peer Support and Networking

- ★ Online Member Directory
- ★ View presentations on new technology and hear reviews from trainers that are using it.

Access to Educational Meetings & Workshops

- ★ Train-the-trainer workshop: the premier education, training, and networking event of the year, at a very reasonable price.

You will get all this and much more by joining GTR!

* Not a member? Please feel free to join us for our planning session on November 14th to learn how you can become a member of this fun and enlightening group!
